

FAVORITES WIN AT HAWTHORNE.

The heavy rain of Tuesday night rendered the going at Hawthorne heavy and holding yesterday, and in most cases those horses that run to their best form in the mud were successful.

The most pretentious race of the day was the fourth, a free handicap purse of $700, for three-year-olds and upward at one mile. Of the nine scheduled to start four remained in their stalls. Brulare on her known liking for a soft track was made a 4 to 5 favorite and won as the betting indicated. She and Strangest ran as one horse until just turning for home, where the latter fell away beaten. In the last eighth Winkfield made a splendid bid with Toah, but Brulare stood it off with courage winning easily by two lengths. Strangest finished third three lengths back of Toah. The latter ran an excellent race when it is taken into consideration that he is not partial to heavy going. Strangest was right there for five furlongs. Searcher's chances were spoiled by the poor start, but even when he got into his stride he ran badly and showed but little speed.

McChesney put up one of those performances in the second race that brings the grandstand to its feet with keen excitement. The race was a dash of six furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. Herodiade on his known liking for the going was made a slight favorite over McChesney, but got off last to a poor start and appeared to sulk all the way. Nellie Waddell, off flying, opened up a gap of almost five lengths in the first half, with Semicolon eight before Golden Glitter, on which McChesney was lapped. In the last eighth Nellie Waddell appeared an easy winner, but here McChesney, which had been taken next to the inside rail when turning for home, thus saving ground, came with a determined and sensational rush and passed her with consummate ease fifty yards out, winning by a length. Semicolon finished a fair third. Nellie Waddell, which runs to her best form only on a fast track, ran a good race, but tired palpably when challenged by the winner. Semicolon took kindly to the going and showed to advantage. He is worthy of consideration from now on. Herodiade either could not or would not extend himself freely in the going and was hopelessly beaten off all the way.

The third race furnished a surprise for the talent, Philo, the 13 to 10 favorite being easily beaten by Pericles, against whose chances as good as 10 to 1 could be had. Joe Buckley and Philo ran as one horse to the head of the stretch, where the former gave up the struggle and it appeared for a moment as if Philo was destined to win easily, but in the last eighth Buchanan brought up Pericles on the outside with a rush, passing the leader without much effort and winning well within himself by two lengths. Philo tired fast in the last sixteenth and had all she could do to get second place by a head from Egg Nogg. The latter finished resolutely and ran consistently. Joe Buckley was right there for five furlongs. Six furlongs appears about one farther than he cares to go. Prince of Endurance showed scant speed and is evidently of no present account.

The day's opener, a dash of seven furlongs, proved an easy thing for the long-overdue Alene Abbott, which was much the best of a mediocre field of nine that faced the barrier. She ran The Rabbit into early exhaustion and then came away with ease, winning in hollow fashion by nine lengths from Russellton, which beat Blessed Damozel one for second place. Hopefield showed well for about a half mile. She Wins, backed by a number of sharp punters, ran a dull race and never gave her backers the slightest hope of success.

The fifth race, a dash of seven furlongs, really appeared to be a foregone conclusion for Scotch Plaid, but Emma A. M. caused him to be driven out vigorously to catch her in the last sixteenth, after which he won somewhat handily. To a bad start Emma A. M. shot to the lead and held it by a safe margin up to the final eighth, where Scotch Plaid closed up on her and beat her to the wire by a half length. Red Apple finished a beaten off third. Kazan was practically left at the post. Layia appeared to take unkindly to the holding footing. She can do much better over a hard track. Little Elkin had little trouble in winning the last race, a dash of one and a half miles. He suffered Brutal to run in the lead for six furlongs and then easily went to the front at call, winning in a canter by four lengths from Compass, which beat G. W. W. twelve for second place. Lizella was unable to get up much more speed than a canter and was hopelessly beaten off all the way.

A crowd fully as large as that of Monday was on hand and, despite the unfavorable conditions, witnessed a good day's sport. With clear weather today the track will be slow at its best.

A FEW SMALL WAGERS.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 20.—The Saratoga racing season was ushered in with a lavish and unprecedented display of big money in the betting ring and this has continued to increase in volume until the operations of preceding years have been dwarfed into insignificance. The immense wagers accepted by Ullman and Weller excite wonder on the part of everybody and particularly impressed are the principal layers of the Metropolitan Turf Association who have hitherto had a monopoly of the business on the eastern tracks. A glance at Ullman's sheet today sufficed to convey an accurate idea of the gigantic sums wagered on the six races.

Thirty thousand dollars was handled on the first race, on which he won $11,000. He paid out $22,000 as against $15,000 taken in on the second. He kept $24,000 of the $30,000 taken in on the third. A slight falling off, only $21,000 profits on the fourth out of the $30,000 taken in. And the remarkable showing in the fifth and sixth, the latter a race for maiden jockeys, is almost beyond belief. $40,000 to each event was handled by this extraordinary book, the day's operations netting $63,000 profits and the volume of business aggregated $185,000.

Only routine business was transacted at the meeting of the jockey club stewards this afternoon.

J. E. Madden is now the sole owner of River Pirate, having bought out T. H. Hitchcock's interest. This son of Pirate of Penzance was bought from S. S. Brown at private sale last week for $8,000.

S. McNaughton's protest in the matter of friendly claims of W. R. Condon and Shrine was ignored by the stewards.

An unwarranted plunge on Janice was the feature of the day's operations in the ring. In the race the mare ran badly, as was to be expected. She has traveled back and forth between the Atlantic and Pacific six times since the spring of her two-year-old form and has been campaigned steadily and without a let up ever since and has lost her form completely.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

J. B. Respass will today ship his horses, including Belle's Commoner, Dick Welles, and Colonnade to Buffalo, N. Y. Belle's Commoner is entered in the $8,000 Buffalo Derby, which is down for decision on the opening day.

Jockeys Birkenruth and Prior were fined $25 each by the starter for disobedience at the post in the second race.

J. Murphy, the well known bookmaker and owner returned yesterday from Saratoga and reports that the book operated by Ullman & Weller is the largest ever known.

M. Shannon bought from Burns & Waterhouse yesterday the two-year-old Maxette.

S. C. Hildreth purchased from Burns & Waterhouse yesterday the horses Favonius and Scotch Plaid. The latter raced in the Hildreth colors in the fifth race, and after he had won was bid up by Winner—B. m., by Onondaga—Annette (trained by E. Heffner). Went to post at 2:15. At post 10 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Belle of Lexington beat the gate and made the most of the advantage, scoring a lucky victory. Wealth put up a remarkably game and improved race. Slipthrift favors slow going, but was prominent throughout and aided by light weight held on well. St. Finnan was outgamed in the final stretch drive and was possibly short. Bluff, nearly left, worked a rough passage inadequately ridden and finished like a flash when with clear sailing and was best. Rockwater, in grand form, but not quite keyed up, can beat this kind and displayed brilliant speed and stamina. Torchlight was away badly and pocketed almost throughout. Redpath was nearly left and closed a tremendous gap. Setauket is strictly a mudlark. Scratched—(34361) Moor, 107; (34316) Barouche, 102. Belle of Lexington, show, 7 to 5. Wealth, show, 8 to 5. Slipthrift, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. g. by Inspector B.—Theodora (trained by J. E. Lawson). Went to post at 2:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Inspector Stevens indulged Westown for the first mile and then forged to the front. He went unextended throughout and was easing almost to a walk in the last quarter and was much the best. Filon d'Or, palpably unfit, fenced badly and tired after going the first mile. This race should fit him to beat the best. Victor showed fine form through the field and ran away above his mark. Westown quit at the end of the first mile. The others are very ordinary. Scratched—32317 Fulminate, 149; 34014 Marylander, 146; 34389 Somerset, 143; (34386) Eophone, 141; 34163 Kufa, 138. Winner—Gr. g. by St. George—Una B. (trained by W. P. Burch). Went to post at 3:25. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second handily. Grey Friar broke running, held sway throughout, was always apparently a certain winner and was best at the weights. Judith Campbell, also favored with a lucky start, reserved her speed and made good in the stretch, easily stalling off Whitechapel. The latter broke flatfooted, raced a fast middle half and appeared a contender a furlong out, but failed to stay and is evidently fainthearted. Sailmaker interfered with on the far turn. Grantsdale, nearly left, closed a big gap. Maxnic, unable to concede the weight, was outrun to the stretch where he was going strongly and favors a longer route. Charles Elwood was away badly and pocketed. Merry Acrobat has worked fast and ran in improved form. Scratched—34339 Tantalus Cup, 117; (34335) Acefull, 117; 34410 Athelroy, 117; 33478 Whorler, 110; Leipsic 110. Grey Friar, show, 2 to 1. Judith Campbell, show, 3 to 1. Entry, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—Ch. g. by Owas—Utility (trained by W. C. Daly). Went to post at 3:50. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Daly, very fit and showing plenty of reserve speed, ran away from The Rival at the half, but the latter was gradually wearing him down at the end. Janice has completely lost her former good form and probably needs a long let up. Scratched—34439 Huntress, 106.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

J. Mayberry, acting for C. R. Ellison, to $1,000, an advance of $500 over his entered price, at which figure Hildreth let him go.

Jockey Coburn has received of late numerous offers from eastern owners and trainers, including James Rowe, for his services in the Futurity. Mr. Bennett stated yesterday that the jockey would have a mount in the valuable race, but did not care to disclose the person whose horse Coburn would ride.

The horse Favonius, which S. C. Hildreth purchased yesterday from Burns & Waterhouse, belonged before to Hildreth, who bought him from G. B. Morris for $4,000 while racing in California during the winter of 1900. Favonius ran and won some good races in the Hildreth colors and was sold to Burns & Waterhouse for $10,000. The latter purchased the horse with a view to capturing the $10,000 Burns Handicap with him, but overconfidence on the part of Bullman caused his defeat. The Fretter, to which he was conceding fifteen pounds, beat him less than one length for first money. Since then Favonius has shown very little and the races he won during the Washington Park meeting are the first brackets he has earned in over a year. Mr. Hildreth repurchased the horse yesterday for $2,800, or $7,200 less than he sold the horse for.

NORTHERN HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Time, 1:11, 23, 46, 1:01, 1:08.
Winner—Ch. f. by St. Florian—Esther Cleveland (trained by W. Karkick).
Went to post at 4:20. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Ella Snyder, superbly handled, came through next to the rail and caught Mary McCafferty napping at the end. The latter, nearly left, was injudiciously raced into the lead in the first quarter (separately timed in 22%), but struggled home gamely in spite of her hard early effort and was much the best. Dark Planet beat the gate by a half dozen lengths, but was unable to retain his advantage. Claude tired from following the fast pace. Warte Nicht had no chance with his bad rider and fell far out of contention in the first sixteenth. Sir Preston is very fast, but failed to stay. Christine A., practically left, closed a big gap. Amorous went well. Turnpike was closing strongly at the end. Dr. Hagyard, practically left, has worked fast. Captivator is a good looker.

Scratched—34341 Dramatist, 108; (34288) John A. Scott, 108; 34341 Tom Maybin, 108; 33989 Glorious, 105; 34240 Louise Collier, 105; 34413 Fullback, 108; 34438 Wannakee, 100; 34288 Petit Bleu, 100.
Ella Snyder, show, 4 to 5. Mary McCafferty, show, 1 to 2. Dark Planet, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f. by Rossington—Valuable (trained by J. McLaughlin).
Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Rossignol is rounding to her good form, was away badly, but gradually moved up and took a long and winning lead on the far turn and was easily best. Mosketo was badly ridden, but closed up with a rush and was easily second best. Lee King tired at the end after a hard drive to beat the winner. Loone was going well in the last quarter. Honolulu is of no present account. Wissendine failed to stay. San Andres, with nothing to keep him in, bolted as usual on the turns.
Scratched—34385 G. Whittier, 100.
Rossignol, show, 7 to 10. Mosketo, show, 4 to 5. Lee King, show, 7 to 5. San Andres, show, 1 to 2.

Brulare, Scotch Plaid, Little Elkin, were the winners our patrons received Wednesday. Our clients also received Alne Abbott, Nellie Waddell, Pericles for place bets. Belle of Lexington, 6 to 1, was our Saratoga special.

Thursday Extra Special 5 to 1 Shot.

We shall advise our clients to plunge for the limit on this good thing; is absolutely the very best "good thing" that we have had this year—bar none. For the first time in the history of the American turf "certain" inside track information on extensive lines, heretofore gathered in a poor way but exclusively for a few "noted plunger", is being brought within reach of the general racegoer by THE RACE TRACK INFORMATION BUREAU, which we have a 15 to 1 shot on tap. This one is a sure winner on any kind of a track. On past races this one don't look to have a 100 to 1 chance, but we have inside information that this good thing has improved 20 pounds since last it faced the flag.

Form Letter on Hawthorne and Saratoga, Printed, Ready at 9 a.m.

Master Mariner began slowly, but went round his field, wore the leaders down in the stretch and won going away. Palmette showed a great turn of speed and hung on longer than usual. Tros ran a good race from a bad beginning and under a very weak ride. He will beat better horses presently at a longer distance. Likeness tired after she had appeared like a winner. She will do presently. Ranco was probably short and was not driven when he tired. Verify ran poorly. Scratched—34243 Elsie Bramble, 112. Master Mariner, show, 2 to 5. Palmette, show, 3 to 1. Winner—Br. f. by Sain—Gratitude (trained by R. D. Williams). Went to post at 3:39. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Schwalbe, well away, was well rated in front, showed much the most speed and was never in trouble. Brief ran a good race, was well ridden and McCann outdressed Goodyear for place. Henry of Trastamare also ran a good race. Ciales ran a very dull one. Liasso showed speed, but tired. Scratched—34342 Invictus, 99. Overweights—Lasso, 2 pounds; Crosby, 2. Bar, show, out. Went to post at 2:52. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Luigart came away with ease in the last furlong and won going away. O'Neil had him under restraint to the stretch turn. Eddie T. showed all the early speed, but tired in the last sixteenth. Bank Street made up a lot of ground in the stretch and would have been second in a few more strides. Dusky Secret was off well and had no mishaps. Mrs. Frank Foster's race yesterday seemed to have taken her speed away. Miss Trappean ran well to the stretch and then quit.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Florian—Heliopolis (trained by D. Lamasney).
Went to post at 3:21. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second handily. Reeves ran well, but just lasted long enough to win. Gold Bride was catching him fast and would have won in another stride. She had to pull out and go around at the stretch turn and would have won easily but for this. Tribesman tired in the run home. C. F. Cook did his best. Jelsi was out off shortly after the start. Friday showed speed. Silk and Satin was practically left.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The distance and weight just suited The Way. He went to the front in the first half mile and thereafter had things pretty much his own way. Obstacle Simon was doing his best for the entire journey, but could not give the weight to the winner. Secundus was on the outside most of the way and covered a lot of ground. He finished on the inside and was crowded some in the last sixteenth. Picador was cut off and knocked out of it just before making the turn for home.

Ocone saved ground at the home turn, but tired when the pinch came. Bean had a rough trip and might have won but for interference. Ocone waived apprentice allowance.

EASTERN TURF TOPICS.

"Trainer Rowe continues to uncover a good two-year-old from the Keene stable almost every week. It was almost two weeks ago that he cut loose the filly Dazzling, by St. Leonards—Splendour, who later in the Saratoga Special ran a superb race and finished second to Irish Lad, the winner. Last week Rowe uncorked Flying Prince, a magnificent colt by Ben Brush—Fairy Slipper, which, like Dazzling, instantly showed sterling merit. It was generally expected that Flying Prince would start in the United States Hotel Stakes on Saturday, but it is said that Rowe concluded to wait until the Futurity before allowing the colt to start again, thereby letting him into the big $60,000 race without penalties. Turfmen are wondering what youngsters will represent the Keenes in the Futurity. Some believe that it will be Flying Prince and Dazzling, while others feel quite sure that at the last moment the stable will fall back upon such seasoned campaigners as Whitechapel, Hurst Park, Dalesman or Injunction," says the New York Sun of Monday.

"As the Futurity draws near, by the way, the probable winner cannot be selected by the sharps. While it is conceded that the Keenes hold a winning hand, it is not forgotten that there are nearly a dozen other contenders who appear to have a chance. Only on Saturday the colt Skilful, winner of the United States Hotel Stakes, showed that he is a possible winner of the great race. Whitney & Duryea's Irish Lad, winner of the Saratoga Special is a favorite already with numerous smart persons. Mexican, the colt purchased by R. T. Wilson, Jr., who went lame during a gallop the day after the Mackay sale, may start in the Futurity, as his ailment just now is not considered serious. If he does go to the post, Mexican will have loads of backing. Julius Fleischmann has a likely colt in Hurstbourne, while August Belmont's much-talked-of Hastings colt, Mizzen, will be in the leading figures. J. B. Haggins' Charles Elwood and Sir Voorhies are also worthy of consideration, together with J. E. Madden's River Pirate and Acefull. One might go on naming over the candidates to the extent of fifty with a reason why each of them ought to have a look-in, all of which tends to show that this year's Futurity will be a mighty interesting affair and that no two-year-old can look for an easy victory.

"Chuctanunda's performance in the Delaware Handicap on Saturday when he ran a mile in 1:38 was the talk of all turfmen here yesterday, especially those who came down from the Spa to spend Sunday. One of them said to The Sun man in a chat at the Metropole yesterday:

"Chuctanunda is a great horse just now. He could have run that mile in world's record time if he had been at all pressed. 'As it was the colt was under wraps all the way and won easily. He and Douro, his stable companion, are a fast pair and will be hard to beat from now on. The Sanfords intend to race both of them on local tracks later.'

"It is freely predicted that before the Saratoga meeting ends, the mile record will be lowered. The track at the Spa is not only lightning fast, but is also banked at the turns in such a manner that records are inevitable. Those who have been to Saratoga are loud in their praise of the track management and the racing itself. One of the leading bookmakers made the statement yesterday that the amount of money in circulation was enormous, but when asked whether it was true that as much as $50,000 was wagered by one man on one horse in a single race, he laughed long and loudly.

"Those are pipe stories," said he. "If that much money was bet by one man and the horse won, how long do you think the ring would last? When you hear that a man wants to bet a million dollars on a race at Saratoga you can bet that $10,000 is a big bet for him, whoever he may be. I do not deny that there has been some heavy plunging, but the amounts said to have been won and lost are greatly exaggerated."

A NEW SALES CENTER.

"Actuated by the unexpected success of the Mackay and Reed sales last week, the officers of the Saratoga Racing Association are seriously considering an innovation which may result in bringing to Saratoga the annual yearling sales of the great breeding establishments of Kentucky, Tennessee and California. The details of the plan have not yet been fully considered and agreed upon, but the scheme comprehends the construction of 900 stalls to house yearlings in and a three-quarter straight-away track on which to break them.

"Mr. William C. Whitney and his brother officers in the management of Saratoga's racing enterprise have asked for figures as to the cost of 900 stalls, and Charles W. Leavitt, Jr., the builder of the new track, has been requested to find out immediately how much land in the neighborhood of Horse Haven would be needed to build the straightaway on, and what the construction of such a track would cost," says a Saratoga letter to Daily America.

"It is understood that the association will, if the plan is adopted, let the new stalls out to the breeding establishments or the sale companies conducting the auctions for nominal rents. They only want enough money to pay the cost of maintenance.
